Description

We are a non-profit organization, we support responsible consumption of natural resources, with love for people and respect for nature. We develop healthy consumption habits and act for the harmonious development of local communities in particular, and human society in general. What we do: - We design and facilitate experiential trainings & workshops on sustainability topics - We design educational tools on sustainability: simulation games, board games & non-formal education methods - We organise green events and fairs - We assist companies and organisations in their transition towards more eco-friendly practices - We assist local, regional and national administrations in the development and implementation of political actions in conformity with the principles of sustainable development and responsible consumption.
