Bilateral Meetings

- Thursday 14:30-17:00

Description

BIC is an economic development tool designed to help innovative young entrepreneurs to accelerate their growth and success. The purpose of BIC is to produce successful firms that will leave the incubation program financially viable and freestanding, usually in two to three years, creating jobs, commercializing innovative new technologies and strengthening local and national economy. BIC also fosters cooperation with the local University and student organizations especially in developing new programs, transfer of knowledge and networking, business skills trainings and provision of space and mentorship during internship programs for students and graduates. BIC strongly supports the development of Cluster organizations, particularly ICT through participation in management structures and joint project implementation.
